

On Broadway Study Guide

- Broadway is the street in New York that has come to symbolize live theater entertainment throughout the world.
- Broadway theatre is usually a play or musical presented in one of thirty-nine large professional theatres in the Theatre District located in Manhattan in New York City.
- The shows are intended to make a profit and therefore, are open-ended meaning the length of the show is based on ticket sales.
- The longest running musical on Broadway is Phantom of the Opera.
- If a show has a long run on Broadway, producers often decide to recast the show and crew for a national tour in major cities across the country.
- Broadway shows typically have evening performances Tuesday through Saturday with a 7pm or 8pm “curtain.” This refers to the start of the show.
- Matinee performances occur during the afternoon.
- Named for Antoinette Perry, the Tony Awards recognize excellence on Broadway.
- The first awards show occurred in June in 1947.
